

LAPÉ Collection Hand Wash

Oriental Lemon Tea

Description

The LAPÉ Collection adds a touch of class to your guest washroom. Supplied in 300ml pump top bottles, the LAPÉ Collection's subtle composition compliments any designer washroom and appeals to both men and women alike.

LAPÉ's oriental lemon tea hand wash enhances the washroom environment by releasing a gently refreshing fragrance in to the air whenever used. The formulation itself glides smoothly around hands, hydrating the skin as it washes with its moisturising complex and glycerine content. Customers will feel pampered by the luxury look, scent and feel of the LAPÉ Collection and will make a pleasant association between their guest experience and your establishment.

The LAPÉ Collection's oriental lemon tea hand wash can be positioned alongside LAPÉ's oriental lemon tea hand lotion to complete your wash room offer and delight your customers. Both formulations are free from phthalates, parabens and triclosan.

The LAPÉ Collection offers refill bottles of the oriental lemon tea fragranced hand wash meaning the 300ml pump top bottles can be easily topped up in situ and without mess. The refill option ensures the overall cost to you is kept low whilst your guests always see a full hand soap solution. And whilst our pump top bottles are fully recyclable, refilling these bottles creates an even more environmentally sustainable solution.
